L.A. Times says of John's Solitary Tales, "...Stowell transcends the label of jazz guitarist."
- L.A. Times

Stowell's Through the Listening Glass with David Friesen was designated one of the "Ten Best Jazz Albums of the Decade" by the Los Angeles Examiner, and he was chosen as a "Talent Deserving Wider Recognition" by Downbeat's International Critic's Poll in 1978 and 1979. He has appeared on BET's Jazz Discovery and Guitar Series television shows. Now see him in Cannon Beach.

World renowned jazz guitarist returns to Cannon Beach History Center & Museum.

All proceeds help fund upcoming events & exhibits at the History Center. Concert brought to you by Kimberley Speer-Miller
